5. Duty to Defend

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section IV, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought.

See Section III, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.
