Policy No. LG-773595

Declarations

Named Insured: Cedar Hollow Hospitality LLC
Carrier: Ironvale Specialty Insurance Company
Admitted Status: Non-Admitted
Policy Period: January 1, 2027 to January 1, 2028

99. Representations

The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection.

A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

100. Knowledge of Occurrence

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

See Section IV, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

Declarations (continued)

Mailing Address: 305 Orchard Lane, Asheville, NC 28801
Producer: Lantern Insurance Brokerage Inc.
Policy Form: CG 00 02 04 13 Commercial General Liability Coverage Form (Claims-Made)

14. Bankruptcy
Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

15. Liberalization
The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. See Section V, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

See Section V, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply.

16. Other Insurance
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

17. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier.

The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section II, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or

Declarations: Limits of Insurance

Each Occurrence Limit: $2,000,000
General Aggregate Limit: $4,000,000
Deductible (per Declarations): $1,500 per occurrence

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made.

51. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change.

52. Medical Payments
Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

53. Supplementary Payments
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 4(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier.

The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless

Schedule of Forms and Endorsements

OM-GL 107 (10/13) Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions
OM-GL 114 (07/15) Property Damage Limitations Form
OM-GL 121 (07/15) Policy Interpretation and Notices Form
OM-GL 128 (10/13) Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured
OM-GL 135 (04/11) Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions
OM-GL 142 (07/11) Common Policy Conditions
OM-GL 149 (12/11) Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured
OM-GL 156 (04/11) Common Policy Conditions
OM-GL 163 (04/15) Policy Interpretation and Notices Form
OM-GL 170 (12/13) Property Damage Limitations Form
OM-GL 177 (12/15) Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance
OM-GL 184 (12/11) Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance
OM-GL 191 (12/13) Supplemental Coverage Provisions
OM-GL 198 (12/13) Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

18. Conformity with Statute

The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section III, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. See Section II, paragraph 10(f) for the conditions that apply.

71. Policy Territory Definitions
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section IV, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought.

A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made.

72. Bankruptcy
The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section V, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section V, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply.

73. Nonrenewal

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section II, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made.

See Section IV, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section V, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change.

The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period.

See Section I, paragraph 9(h) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

See Section II, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section I, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

14. Inspections and Surveys

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. See Section III, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

63. Supplementary Payments
The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section III, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

64. Knowledge of Occurrence
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request.

65. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section V, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law.

See Section I, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law.

66. Other Insurance
"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section III, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

67. Conformity with Statute

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply.

77. Changes

See Section V, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

78. Inspections and Surveys

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

See Section V, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

46. Cancellation

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made.

Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions.

47. Conformity with Statute

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section III, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply.

See Section IV, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section V, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply.

48. Inspections and Surveys

A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section III, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier.

The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 11(d) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection.

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

See Section III, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section I, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. See Section III, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply.

51. Bankruptcy

Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

See Section II, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section IV, paragraph 9(h) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

52. Cancellation

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured shall provide access to books and records

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section IV, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period.

2. Legal Action Against Us

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section III, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section IV, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

90. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

91. Inspections and Surveys

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 8(h) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section III, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law.

See Section V, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request.

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance.

The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

See Section II, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection.

See Section IV, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. See Section III, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply.

96. Representations

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section I, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply.

See Section I, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance.

Policy Territory

Coverage territory: all locations within the State of Ohio and the contiguous

Policy Territory (continued)

states of Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan and West Virginia, and goods in transit between those locations, and also temporary operations at trade shows held

See Section II, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought.

See Section IV, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

See Section II, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

36. Other Insurance
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

37. Policy Territory Definitions
The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, within those states for a period not exceeding thirty days.

The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. See Section I, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section V, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier.

33. Conformity with Statute

See Section IV, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section IV, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply.

The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

34. Supplementary Payments

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section V, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply.

46. Conformity with Statute
The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost.

47. Cancellation
Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

48. Separation of Insureds
The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request.

49. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section I, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. See Section III, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply.

21. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request.

A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

22. Separation of Insureds
Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

23. Separation of Insureds
"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 11(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 2(b) for the conditions that apply.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section II, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

See Section II, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period.

92. Inspections and Surveys

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

93. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section I, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each

Common Policy Conditions

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. See Section V, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

49. Separation of Insureds

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule.

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under

Common Policy Conditions

The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. See Section III, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request.

Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 6(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought.

72. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. See Section III, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

See Section III, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request.

73. Representations

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general

Common Policy Conditions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

35. Supplementary Payments

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

See Section V, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section IV, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

36. Conformity with Statute

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

21. Examination of Your Books and Records

See Section III, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost.

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made.

The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section III, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply.

See Section V, paragraph 10(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

See Section II, paragraph 5(a) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. "Bodily injury" means bodily

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. See Section II, paragraph 11(c) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

33. Representations

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost.

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

34. Limits of Insurance Application

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made.

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section IV, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply.

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

35. Duty to Defend

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is

Exclusions and Limitations Form

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

33. Cancellation
Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

See Section I, paragraph 11(c) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

See Section III, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

See Section IV, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable.

Exclusions and Limitations Form

See Section V, paragraph 1(c) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law.

58. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance.

The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section IV, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply.

59. Policy Territory Definitions
Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. See Section I, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section I, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and a person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or

Exclusions and Limitations Form

Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply.

24. Legal Action Against Us

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section III, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable.

Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

25. Medical Payments

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

20. Premium Audit

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

21. Legal Action Against Us

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

22. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section IV, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section I, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made.

71. Supplementary Payments
Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period.

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section II, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made.

See Section III, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 9(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. See Section V, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable.

88. Limits of Insurance Application

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section III, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule.

89. Nonrenewal

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost.

90. Separation of Insureds

A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change.

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own

Property Damage Limitations Form

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier.

16. Legal Action Against Us
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

17. Limits of Insurance Application
Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

18. Cancellation
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

See Section IV, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section IV, paragraph 11(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

Property Damage Limitations Form

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

24. Examination of Your Books and Records

The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

See Section IV, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made.

See Section I, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section IV, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply.

25. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

Property Damage Limitations Form

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section I, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply.

See Section II, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule.

65. Medical Payments

The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

See Section I, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section I, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request.

66. Limits of Insurance Application

Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section II, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost.

The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

94. Supplementary Payments

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 9(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request.

95. Other Insurance

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

45. Representations

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

46. Legal Action Against Us

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section II, paragraph 4(b) for the conditions that apply. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made.

See Section I, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. See Section III, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice,

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

34. Policy Territory Definitions

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

See Section V, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and a person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. See Section III, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier.

35. Knowledge of Occurrence

See Section III, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section V, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

74. Bankruptcy
See Section II, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection.

See Section II, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section IV, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

75. Liberalization
"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made.

76. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section IV, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section I, paragraph 4(b) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

77. Bankruptcy
The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section V, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

11. Separation of Insureds
See Section III, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section IV, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection.

The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work,

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

21. Policy Territory Definitions

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. See Section III, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost.

22. Limits of Insurance Application

See Section IV, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection.

The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. Each insured must not

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section I, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost.

64. Conformity with Statute

See Section V, paragraph 4(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

See Section III, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

See Section V, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost.

See Section V, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

62. Medical Payments
The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section I, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought.

63. Examination of Your Books and Records
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section II, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. See Section V, paragraph 4(g) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. See Section V, paragraph 4(b) for the conditions that apply.

64. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud
See Section V, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

71. Premium Audit
Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. See Section I, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

72. Bankruptcy
"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section II, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply.

73. Supplementary Payments
"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost.

74. Representations
"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

77. Bankruptcy
See Section II, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

78. Knowledge of Occurrence
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section I, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

79. Premium Audit
Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section IV, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section IV, paragraph 11(a) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section IV, paragraph 7(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change.

Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

64. Duty to Defend

A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section I, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. See Section III, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section IV, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. See Section IV, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

14. Transfer of Rights of Recovery

See Section V, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section I, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

See Section IV, paragraph 2(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance.

See Section IV, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section V, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply.

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section II, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

See Section II, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

6. Other Insurance
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and a person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change.

See Section I, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section II, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made.

74. Duty to Defend
The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection.

Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

See Section II, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought.

A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made.

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section IV, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

79. Other Insurance

The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

See Section V, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

80. Knowledge of Occurrence

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change.

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request.

See Section III, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section III, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. The

Common Policy Conditions

See Section IV, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

65. Bankruptcy
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

66. Inspections and Surveys
See Section II, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 1(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply.

67. Supplementary Payments
"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

68. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought.

Common Policy Conditions

A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. See Section III, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

23. Premium Audit
The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 3(a) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance.

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section IV, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply.

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section IV, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

Common Policy Conditions

See Section V, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section III, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance.

7. Premium Audit

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

8. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

9. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section V, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request.

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section I, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

18. Medical Payments
Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. See Section I, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made.

The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

See Section IV, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request.

50. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss.

See Section III, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section V, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply.

51. Premium Audit
"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

52. Premium Audit
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. See Section III, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section II, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

13. Inspections and Surveys

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law.

14. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

See Section II, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

15. Separation of Insureds

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and a person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named

Exclusions and Limitations Form

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

39. Legal Action Against Us

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

See Section II, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

40. Knowledge of Occurrence

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Exclusions and Limitations Form

62. Supplementary Payments
A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section III, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply.

63. Legal Action Against Us
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

64. Premium Audit
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule.

65. Nonrenewal
See Section III, paragraph 8(h) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

66. Policy Territory Definitions
Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. See Section III, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply.

The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 45

Exclusions and Limitations Form

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the first named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

88. Bankruptcy
Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

89. Supplementary Payments
Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

90. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable.

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

See Section II, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought.

Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought.

See Section V, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection.

50. Knowledge of Occurrence
See Section II, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought.

A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section II, paragraph 10(f) for the conditions that apply.

51. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

52. Medical Payments
Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. This

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section III, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost.

31. Policy Territory Definitions

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section I, paragraph 11(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought.

32. Separation of Insureds

The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought.

Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request.

33. Examination of Your Books and Records

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance.

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. The Producer of

Property Damage Limitations Form

86. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

See Section IV, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made.

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

See Section IV, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

87. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Property Damage Limitations Form

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. See Section IV, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request.

85. Policy Territory Definitions

The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section V, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Advertisement" means a notice that is

Property Damage Limitations Form

See Section V, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change.

95. Nonrenewal
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. See Section III, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section II, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law.

See Section III, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

40. Policy Territory Definitions

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section II, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

41. Limits of Insurance Application

Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply.

42. Examination of Your Books and Records

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 11(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance.

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

37. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section V, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply.

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

38. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

See Section V, paragraph 3(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

39. Changes

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request.

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section III, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Producer of record must preserve

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

65. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

See Section II, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. See Section IV, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable.

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule.

See Section II, paragraph 2(c) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section II, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

66. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. See Section IV, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

8. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section V, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period.

9. Separation of Insureds
Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section I, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 2(b) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection.

10. Representations
The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

37. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. See Section V, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

38. Representations

See Section II, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost.

39. Liberalization

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. See Section V, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply.

40. Cancellation

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

See Section IV, paragraph 11(d) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section II, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made.

51. Other Insurance

The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

77. Conformity with Statute

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable.

The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section I, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions.

Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

78. Bankruptcy

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

79. Examination of Your Books and Records

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. See Section III, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply.

80. Legal Action Against Us

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought.

The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section IV, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section II, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section III, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

62. Liberalization
Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. See Section V, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section III, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

92. Knowledge of Occurrence

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 6(a) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought.

See Section III, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier.

See Section II, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

93. Legal Action Against Us

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section I, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

94. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

84. Cancellation
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section V, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply.

85. Medical Payments
The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions.

86. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud
The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. See Section I, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made.

87. Liberalization
The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost.

The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

37. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
See Section IV, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule.

38. Legal Action Against Us
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. See Section V, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section II, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

13. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

14. Premium Audit

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

15. Legal Action Against Us

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

14. Supplementary Payments

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply.

15. Legal Action Against Us

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section II, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

16. Legal Action Against Us

See Section II, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule.

See Section I, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

See Section II, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

50. Liberalization

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

51. Inspections and Surveys

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

52. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section II, paragraph 1(c) for the conditions that apply.

53. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance.

The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. See Section V, paragraph 3(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

68. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section III, paragraph 5(a) for the conditions that apply.

See Section III, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable.

The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. See Section III, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section IV, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

See Section I, paragraph 6(a) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section V, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

35. Supplementary Payments
Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made.

A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. See Section IV, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply.

36. Other Insurance
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

37. Limits of Insurance Application

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply.

See Section I, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable.

The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

20. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section I, paragraph 7(c) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law.

A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

21. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

22. Other Insurance

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. See Section I, paragraph 5(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost.

7. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier shall

Common Policy Conditions

The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

80. Examination of Your Books and Records
The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

81. Changes
See Section V, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section III, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss.

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions.

82. Liberalization
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

Common Policy Conditions

The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request.

The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

See Section II, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section II, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section IV, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply.

14. Separation of Insureds
The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is

Common Policy Conditions

The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made.

See Section V, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section III, paragraph 1(c) for the conditions that apply.

56. Conformity with Statute
The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law.

57. Examination of Your Books and Records
The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost.

58. Bankruptcy
"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law.

59. Knowledge of Occurrence
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section V, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 4(f) for the

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section IV, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

97. Conformity with Statute

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period.

See Section IV, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law.

98. Policy Territory Definitions

See Section IV, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section V, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific

Premium Summary

Annual Premium: $8,875
Taxes and Fees: $530.44
Total Payable: $9,405.44
Rate: $2.630 per $1,000 of gross sales

78. Supplementary Payments
The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable.

The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

See Section IV, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section III, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section II, paragraph 11(f) for the conditions that apply.

79. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
See Section III, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. See Section V, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

5. Nonrenewal
The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made.

Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section IV, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made.

6. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
See Section V, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section III, paragraph 2(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section V, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

Exclusions and Limitations Form

96. Duty to Defend

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section IV, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. See Section II, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

97. Duty to Defend

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section IV, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply.

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

See Section I, paragraph 4(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable

Exclusions and Limitations Form

96. Premium Audit

See Section IV, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section III, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section IV, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period.

97. Duty to Defend

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. See Section V, paragraph 6(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule.

98. Representations

See Section V, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made.

Exclusions and Limitations Form

The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

61. Nonrenewal
See Section III, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made.

62. Legal Action Against Us
Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section I, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section II, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change.

45. Duty to Defend

See Section V, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost.

The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. See Section IV, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. See Section I, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section I, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

See Section V, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period.

See Section IV, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section V, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply.

54. Limits of Insurance Application
The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 2(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. See Section III, paragraph 11(e) for the conditions that apply.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. See Section V, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

55. Inspections and Surveys
See Section I, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply.

The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section III, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable.

Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 2(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

Property Damage Limitations Form

45. Legal Action Against Us

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section II, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

46. Conformity with Statute

See Section I, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost.

The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 9(d) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section V, paragraph 11(a) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section I, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply.

47. Limits of Insurance Application

The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change.

Property Damage Limitations Form

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

43. Bankruptcy

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section IV, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 3(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

44. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section III, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier.

A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section V, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. See Section IV, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. See Section V, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply.

45. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

Property Damage Limitations Form

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request.

33. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section IV, paragraph 6(a) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

34. Limits of Insurance Application
The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

35. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section II, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section IV, paragraph 11(c) for the conditions that apply.

36. Liberalization

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. See Section II, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section IV, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section III, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

3. Bankruptcy
Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance.

4. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss.

2. Changes
See Section V, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought.

3. Other Insurance
"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule.

Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request.

4. Duty to Defend
The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

34. Representations
The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

35. Inspections and Surveys
Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section V, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section IV, paragraph 4(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier.

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. See Section V, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable.

A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section IV, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

See Section III, paragraph 9(d) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply.

See Section III, paragraph 6(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule.

4. Medical Payments
Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law.

See Section II, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply.

70. Inspections and Surveys

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section IV, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section I, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply.

71. Other Insurance

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. See Section IV, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

6. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

7. Supplementary Payments
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section V, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply.

See Section I, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

8. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section II, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law.

9. Changes
A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

See Section I, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

40. Transfer of Rights of Recovery

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

41. Medical Payments

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

42. Duty to Defend

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier.

43. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

See Section V, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section II, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

44. Supplementary Payments

The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section I, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. See Section II, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. See Section I, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section I, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

37. Other Insurance
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply.

38. Premium Audit
The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made.

39. Supplementary Payments
The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. See Section II, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

40. Knowledge of Occurrence
Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

93. Nonrenewal
The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

94. Bankruptcy
The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

95. Legal Action Against Us
The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section I, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section V, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section II, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

83. Other Insurance
"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law.

84. Knowledge of Occurrence
The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

85. Policy Territory Definitions
The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

See Section III, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. See Section IV, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply.

86. Bankruptcy
The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. A person

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request.

43. Other Insurance

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section II, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. See Section II, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply.

44. Supplementary Payments

See Section II, paragraph 10(f) for the conditions that apply. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

45. Policy Territory Definitions

See Section I, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured must

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

91. Nonrenewal
Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

92. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable.

93. Limits of Insurance Application
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section IV, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. See Section III, paragraph 9(h) for the conditions that apply. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

See Section I, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss.

Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section V, paragraph 4(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section IV, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

99. Premium Audit

See Section IV, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost.

100. Liberalization

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section IV, paragraph 4(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. See Section I, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

See Section IV, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

83. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section II, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. See Section I, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

84. Conformity with Statute

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. See Section I, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. See Section II, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made.

90. Limits of Insurance Application

The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made.

The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section I, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

91. Premium Audit

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. Any insured may not voluntarily make a

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made.

21. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

22. Cancellation
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section II, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section III, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

23. Premium Audit
See Section I, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

See Section III, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period.

24. Knowledge of Occurrence
See Section I, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

65. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section III, paragraph 11(a) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss.

66. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud
Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

7. Cancellation
The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period.

8. Supplementary Payments
The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. See Section I, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. See Section III, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. See Section V, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Common Policy Conditions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

30. Representations

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost.

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section II, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

Common Policy Conditions

15. Representations

See Section V, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section I, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply.

16. Premium Audit

See Section V, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section IV, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

See Section IV, paragraph 6(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section IV, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply.

See Section I, paragraph 2(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section IV, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost.

17. Other Insurance

A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. See Section I, paragraph 7(c) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

18. Liberalization

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each

Common Policy Conditions

A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section III, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section IV, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. See Section III, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply.

A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier.

The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

63. Other Insurance

The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 6(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

See Section V, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. See Section IV, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply.

55. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made.

The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. See Section I, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period.

See Section III, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section I, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation,

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section I, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply.

55. Examination of Your Books and Records
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section V, paragraph 11(a) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section V, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Each insured will keep records of the

Exclusions and Limitations Form

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period.

46. Limits of Insurance Application

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. See Section III, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. See Section IV, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section V, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

Exclusions and Limitations Form

87. Inspections and Surveys
Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

88. Other Insurance
"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change.

89. Limits of Insurance Application
"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection.

90. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

91. Premium Audit
Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance.

92. Duty to Defend
A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Exclusions and Limitations Form

58. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. See Section II, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

59. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. See Section III, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 11(d) for the conditions that apply.

60. Examination of Your Books and Records

The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section I, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

61. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

See Section IV, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

12. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule.

13. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request.

Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule.

14. Nonrenewal
The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

57. Legal Action Against Us

A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

58. Premium Audit

The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section IV, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must give written notice of

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

39. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. See Section III, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought.

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. "Impaired

Property Damage Limitations Form

5. Cancellation
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. See Section II, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 6(a) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. See Section II, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

6. Medical Payments
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

7. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

8. Supplementary Payments
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. The

Property Damage Limitations Form

89. Legal Action Against Us

The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made.

See Section V, paragraph 2(c) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. See Section IV, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

90. Knowledge of Occurrence

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply.

See Section II, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance.

91. Conformity with Statute

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made.

Property Damage Limitations Form

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made.

27. Policy Territory Definitions
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

28. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section III, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss.

29. Nonrenewal
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. See Section III, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. See Section I, paragraph 11(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions.

A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost.

The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. See Section V, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

See Section I, paragraph 11(f) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. See Section II, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request.

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

47. Bankruptcy
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section I, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule.

48. Representations
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section V, paragraph 11(f) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law.

49. Inspections and Surveys
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change.

The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

50. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. Each

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

87. Transfer of Rights of Recovery

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section I, paragraph 11(c) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

88. Liberalization

A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section II, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section IV, paragraph 10(f) for the conditions that apply. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section II, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period.

87. Limits of Insurance Application
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

88. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. See Section IV, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

89. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
See Section II, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

90. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. See Section V, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

91. Premium Audit
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

56. Inspections and Surveys

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

See Section II, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

57. Inspections and Surveys

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

58. Changes

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

See Section IV, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section II, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

34. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

See Section II, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule.

Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply.

30. Medical Payments

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section V, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier.

31. Legal Action Against Us

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section V, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost.

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. See Section II, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

4. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made.

5. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section IV, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

4. Conformity with Statute
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

5. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made.

6. Premium Audit
See Section III, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period.

7. Legal Action Against Us
The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section IV, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. See Section IV, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section IV, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable.

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. See Section III, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions.

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

93. Limits of Insurance Application

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. See Section III, paragraph 11(e) for the conditions

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section I, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection.

14. Other Insurance

See Section V, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section V, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. See Section I, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request.

See Section IV, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

81. Legal Action Against Us

See Section III, paragraph 9(d) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

74. Nonrenewal
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

75. Legal Action Against Us
Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. See Section III, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

76. Policy Territory Definitions
The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section IV, paragraph 2(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

See Section I, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. See Section II, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. See Section IV, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

33. Cancellation
See Section IV, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request.

34. Examination of Your Books and Records
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law.

35. Other Insurance
"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought.

36. Cancellation
The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. See Section IV, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made.

8. Legal Action Against Us
Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent

Limits Summary

General Aggregate Limit (applies per policy period): $4,000,000

The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section I, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

77. Bankruptcy

See Section III, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable.

See Section V, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance.

See Section II, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

See Section IV, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

78. Knowledge of Occurrence

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section I, paragraph 11(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section V, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change.

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. See Section II, paragraph 5(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

73. Other Insurance

Common Policy Conditions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section V, paragraph 2(b) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

See Section IV, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. See Section II, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section IV, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent

Common Policy Conditions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section I, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

40. Policy Territory Definitions
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section IV, paragraph 11(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period.

The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply.

See Section IV, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section III, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of

Common Policy Conditions

The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and a person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section V, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

67. Supplementary Payments

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

2. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. See Section V, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply.

A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section III, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section II, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought.

3. Inspections and Surveys
The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable.

10. Changes
See Section I, paragraph 9(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. See Section II, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable.

Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law.

11. Inspections and Surveys
Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. See Section II, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

See Section III, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

18. Supplementary Payments

See Section II, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request.

19. Cancellation

See Section II, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section I, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or

Exclusions and Limitations Form

See Section V, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section II, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply.

48. Policy Territory Definitions
A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 8(h) for the conditions that apply.

49. Cancellation
The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

50. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

Exclusions and Limitations Form

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. See Section II, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

19. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. See Section II, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section V, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request.

20. Transfer of Rights of Recovery

See Section V, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section I, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 9(b) for the conditions that apply. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost.

Exclusions and Limitations Form

See Section II, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

14. Premium Audit
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance.

15. Inspections and Surveys
See Section III, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

16. Other Insurance
"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section III, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

17. Knowledge of Occurrence
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

See Section IV, paragraph 11(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section II, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section V, paragraph 5(a) for the conditions that apply.

100. Medical Payments
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section II, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section IV, paragraph 4(c) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

101. Medical Payments
"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule.

See Section III, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

102. Policy Territory Definitions
The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured is required to permit

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule.

The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle,

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request.

65. Nonrenewal

See Section III, paragraph 11(a) for the conditions that apply. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. See Section I, paragraph 3(a) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 2(c) for the conditions that apply.

See Section I, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection.

See Section III, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. This

Property Damage Limitations Form

The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. See Section I, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought.

83. Conformity with Statute
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section III, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section I, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

84. Conformity with Statute
The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

85. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section IV, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at

Property Damage Limitations Form

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section V, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request.

See Section V, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable.

59. Duty to Defend
See Section III, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

60. Supplementary Payments
The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

See Section III, paragraph 7(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost.

Property Damage Limitations Form

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section III, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

74. Policy Territory Definitions

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule.

Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section I, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply.

75. Knowledge of Occurrence

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law.

76. Inspections and Surveys

See Section IV, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

4. Duty to Defend

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section IV, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss.

The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section I, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

37. Supplementary Payments

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section II, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section III, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made.

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

38. Representations

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply.

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

See Section I, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought.

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply.

32. Nonrenewal
Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

33. Cancellation
Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

34. Premium Audit
A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

See Section I, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 9(d) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

See Section IV, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

See Section II, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

16. Premium Audit
See Section V, paragraph 2(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. See Section III, paragraph 1(c) for the conditions that apply. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. See Section V, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section IV, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply.

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

25. Limits of Insurance Application

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

26. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section II, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

46. Knowledge of Occurrence

Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made.

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section III, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply.

See Section II, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

95. Inspections and Surveys
See Section V, paragraph 11(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

96. Separation of Insureds
Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

See Section I, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. See Section II, paragraph 4(g) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

97. Bankruptcy
"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable.

98. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. See Section III, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply. Each insured

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section IV, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply.

See Section I, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection.

28. Other Insurance

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section I, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions.

29. Transfer of Rights of Recovery

See Section IV, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section III, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

30. Separation of Insureds

The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section I, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost.

A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 11(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section III, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

62. Conformity with Statute

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section I, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply.

63. Policy Territory Definitions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

21. Representations

Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section I, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule.

Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

See Section II, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss.

Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. See Section V, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. See Section IV, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions.

32. Knowledge of Occurrence

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

See Section III, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. See Section IV, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section III, paragraph 7(c) for the conditions that apply.

See Section I, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

93. Other Insurance
Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section II, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

94. Supplementary Payments
The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. See Section II, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. See Section IV, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply.

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable.

Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section I, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

58. Representations

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section II, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made.

The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made.

59. Medical Payments

A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period.

50. Representations

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions.

51. Premium Audit

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. See Section II, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section I, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV: Conditions

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection.

89. Nonrenewal
Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section IV, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

90. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section II, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable.

91. Premium Audit
The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

See Section IV, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

See Section III, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

18. Examination of Your Books and Records

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section V, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change.

Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request.

26. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance.

See Section V, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. See Section IV, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

See Section I, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

27. Legal Action Against Us

Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section V: Definitions

88. Medical Payments
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

89. Separation of Insureds
The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost.

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier shall cooperate with the

Common Policy Conditions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply.

48. Cancellation
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable.

49. Cancellation
A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

50. Other Insurance
The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an

Common Policy Conditions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable.

76. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance.

See Section III, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

77. Policy Territory Definitions
"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

See Section IV, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

78. Inspections and Surveys
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it

Common Policy Conditions

50. Representations

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section V, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section IV, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply.

51. Examination of Your Books and Records

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

52. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

See Section II, paragraph 9(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

53. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made.

The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

See Section II, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request.

The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance.

The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

47. Premium Audit
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section I, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 11(c) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost.

The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section I, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times,

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost.

94. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. See Section I, paragraph 11(d) for the conditions that apply.

95. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

See Section II, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss.

The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record

Premium Audit and Reporting Conditions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

12. Premium Audit
Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier.

13. Separation of Insureds
A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 11(c) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

14. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought.

Exclusions and Limitations Form

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

44. Limits of Insurance Application

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost.

The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

See Section IV, paragraph 8(h) for the conditions that apply. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section II, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in

Exclusions and Limitations Form

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. See Section I, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section II, paragraph 2(b) for the conditions that apply.

See Section V, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

49. Supplementary Payments
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

50. Bankruptcy
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance.

A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is

Exclusions and Limitations Form

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

41. Bankruptcy
Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

See Section IV, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. See Section I, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section II, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section IV, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

See Section IV, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

15. Supplementary Payments

The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section V, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply.

16. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

86. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request.

87. Other Insurance
A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

88. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section IV, paragraph 4(c) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section III, paragraph 11(d) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier.

89. Liberalization
"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. A person or organization seeking coverage

Supplemental Coverage Provisions

10. Nonrenewal

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made.

11. Separation of Insureds

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 11(c) for the conditions that apply.

12. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply.

13. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

14. Knowledge of Occurrence

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage

Property Damage Limitations Form

A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change.

The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

44. Knowledge of Occurrence

A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section V, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection.

The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

45. Conformity with Statute

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation

Property Damage Limitations Form

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

16. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section I, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an

Property Damage Limitations Form

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section I, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

50. Representations

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

51. Policy Territory Definitions

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section IV, paragraph 5(a) for the conditions that apply. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section V, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section IV, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. See Section V, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section I, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost.

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

69. Changes

See Section V, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought.

70. Liberalization

The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

See Section III, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section II, paragraph 4(g) for the conditions that apply.

71. Transfer of Rights of Recovery

Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable.

The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

62. Bankruptcy

The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions.

63. Duty to Defend

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. See Section I, paragraph 5(a) for the conditions that apply.

64. Policy Territory Definitions

See Section II, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful

Policy Interpretation and Notices Form

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section I, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply.

34. Other Insurance
Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply.

35. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. See Section IV, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request.

Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

36. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. See Section III, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

52. Premium Audit

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section V, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

53. Separation of Insureds

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section III, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change.

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule.

The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section V, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

8. Changes
The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section II, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection.

9. Nonrenewal
The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request.

10. Examination of Your Books and Records
See Section II, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I: Coverages

The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

21. Limits of Insurance Application
See Section IV, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost.

22. Representations
"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law.

23. Limits of Insurance Application
See Section V, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

See Section II, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. See Section V, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section IV, paragraph 4(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable.

24. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
See Section I, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

68. Bankruptcy

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made.

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. See Section II, paragraph 9(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request.

69. Supplementary Payments

See Section II, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

See Section IV, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request.

70. Limits of Insurance Application

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section V, paragraph 4(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section IV, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier.

71. Inspections and Surveys

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

See Section IV, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section I, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section II, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

49. Knowledge of Occurrence

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II: Who Is An Insured

See Section III, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss.

The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section IV, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

7. Inspections and Surveys

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. See Section IV, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall cooperate

Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section III: Limits of Insurance

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period.

15. Separation of Insureds

Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. See Section V, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section V, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

16. Nonrenewal

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law.

See Section III, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

17. Supplementary Payments

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request.

Endorsement No. 1: Exclusion: Designated Work

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance.

The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section IV, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. See Section II, paragraph 4(b) for the conditions that apply.

See Section V, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must

Endorsement No. 1 (continued)

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. See Section II, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

29. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section II, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

See Section IV, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section I, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions.

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. See Section IV, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection.

30. Premium Audit

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the

Endorsement No. 2: Notice of Cancellation to Designated Person or Organization

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost.

58. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

59. Nonrenewal

See Section IV, paragraph 9(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section I, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply.

Endorsement No. 2 (continued)

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply.

The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost.

See Section IV, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable.

49. Examination of Your Books and Records

Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply.

The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section III, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy

Endorsement No. 3: Amendment of Cancellation Provisions or Coverage Change

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable.

See Section III, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable.

95. Limits of Insurance Application

The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. See Section I, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured must not

Endorsement No. 3 (continued)

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. See Section V, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

30. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change.

31. Transfer of Rights of Recovery
See Section IV, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Property damage"

Endorsement No. 4: Limitation of Coverage to Designated Premises or Project

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

9. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule.

See Section V, paragraph 11(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period.

10. Changes
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

11. Premium Audit
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim

Endorsement No. 4 (continued)

18. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section III, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section V, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section V, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. See Section II, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable.

19. Bankruptcy

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

Endorsement No. 5: Exclusion: Access or Disclosure of Confidential Information

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

See Section III, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

71. Knowledge of Occurrence

See Section III, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period.

See Section II, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section I, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made.

72. Supplementary Payments

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. See Section V, paragraph 5(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier.

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection.

Endorsement No. 5 (continued)

60. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. See Section II, paragraph 10(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

61. Representations

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost.

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request.

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy

Endorsement No. 6: Primary and Noncontributory: Other Insurance Condition

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

100. Medical Payments

See Section I, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. See Section IV, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section IV, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change.

The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost.

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost.

101. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period.

Endorsement No. 6 (continued)

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

See Section II, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law.

69. Premium Audit
The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section IV, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions.

Endorsement No. 7: Exclusion: Total Pollution with Building Heating Equipment Exception

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

See Section IV, paragraph 11(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section V, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

See Section III, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

35. Bankruptcy

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

36. Representations

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought.

Endorsement No. 7 (continued)

89. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud
Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section I, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

See Section II, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this

Endorsement No. 8: Additional Insured: Owners, Lessees or Contractors, Completed Operation

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable.

The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply.

A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost.

See Section V, paragraph 4(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. See

Endorsement No. 8 (continued)

A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. See Section V, paragraph 7(h) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section V, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

17. Representations

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

18. Policy Territory Definitions

The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section II, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss.

Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and a person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim

Endorsement No. 9: Employee Benefits Liability Coverage

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation.

23. Changes
"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

24. Nonrenewal
See Section III, paragraph 4(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section II, paragraph 1(c) for the conditions that apply.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. See Section IV, paragraph 5(d) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Endorsement No. 9 (continued)

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and a person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section I, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Endorsement No. 10: Exclusion: Unmanned Aircraft

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought.

See Section I, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. See Section IV, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. See Section I, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection.

96. Legal Action Against Us

See Section II, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. Any insured must not impair

Endorsement No. 10 (continued)

The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section II, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request.

91. Premium Audit
A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section II, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. See Section I, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

92. Conformity with Statute
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily

Endorsement No. 11: Amendment of Insured Contract Definition

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

2. Medical Payments
See Section IV, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

See Section V, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section V, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

3. Representations
See Section V, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made.

4. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section III, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made.

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section V, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost.

Endorsement No. 11 (continued)

See Section IV, paragraph 1(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section V, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section V, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions.

Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section I, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

See Section V, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. See Section V, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

53. Limits of Insurance Application
The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 2(c) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

54. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud
Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable

Endorsement No. 12: Contractual Liability Limitation

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

12. Knowledge of Occurrence

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made.

13. Legal Action Against Us

The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 3(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost.

14. Conformity with Statute

See Section II, paragraph 9(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply.

See Section V, paragraph 10(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. See Section II, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply.

Endorsement No. 12 (continued)

19. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
See Section IV, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. See Section II, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

See Section IV, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. See Section V, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section V, paragraph 11(g) for the conditions that apply. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section I, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made.

See Section II, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply.

20. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made.

Endorsement No. 13: Blanket Additional Insured: Managers or Lessors of Premises

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. See Section IV, paragraph 1(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request.

Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

84. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier.

85. Knowledge of Occurrence

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss.

86. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured may be asked to

Endorsement No. 13 (continued)

90. Limits of Insurance Application
See Section I, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable.

The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

91. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
See Section IV, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change.

92. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 8(h) for the conditions that apply.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Notice under this provision must be given

Endorsement No. 14: Limited Coverage for Fungi or Bacteria

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

42. Knowledge of Occurrence
See Section V, paragraph 2(h) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. See Section II, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply.

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period.

43. Nonrenewal
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that

Endorsement No. 14 (continued)

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section IV, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request.

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss.

See Section III, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 1(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section IV, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must

Endorsement No. 15: Additional Insured: Designated Person or Organization

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section V, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

26. Premium Audit

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought.

27. Liberalization

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. See Section V, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must send

Endorsement No. 15 (continued)

84. Duty to Defend
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier.

85. Duty to Defend
See Section III, paragraph 3(d) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period.

The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section III, paragraph 3(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply.

See Section II, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the first named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost.

86. Inspections and Surveys
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request.

87. Other Insurance

Endorsement No. 16: Waiver of Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

59. Duty to Defend

See Section I, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section IV, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made.

Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

60. Premium Audit

The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

61. Separation of Insureds

Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the

Endorsement No. 16 (continued)

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply.

88. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

See Section I, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule.

See Section III, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

See Section III, paragraph 6(a) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. See Section III, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

Endorsement No. 17: Exclusion: Designated Work

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section III, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. See Section II, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply.

43. Cancellation

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section III, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply.

Endorsement No. 17 (continued)

61. Separation of Insureds

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. See Section I, paragraph 11(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable.

Endorsement No. 18: Notice of Cancellation to Designated Person or Organization

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost.

57. Changes
See Section V, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

58. Representations
"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request.

Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change.

Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's

Endorsement No. 18 (continued)

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section IV, paragraph 10(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable.

75. Liberalization

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made.

76. Medical Payments

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. See Section I, paragraph 5(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply.

77. Separation of Insureds

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. See Section II, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. See Section I, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance.

Endorsement No. 19: Amendment of Cancellation Provisions or Coverage Change

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. See Section IV, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

35. Knowledge of Occurrence

The Carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section V, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

36. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

37. Changes

The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

38. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized

Endorsement No. 19 (continued)

See Section III, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request.

96. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section V, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply.

See Section II, paragraph 3(a) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 7(g) for the conditions that apply.

97. Medical Payments

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that

Endorsement No. 20: Limitation of Coverage to Designated Premises or Project

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. See Section I, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply.

64. Examination of Your Books and Records

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the Carrier's request. See Section II, paragraph 7(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier. See Section II, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply.

See Section IV, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section II, paragraph 6(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. See Section II, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request.

65. Changes

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Notice under this

Endorsement No. 20 (continued)

See Section I, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 9(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made.

See Section V, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

31. Limits of Insurance Application
The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section III, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section II, paragraph 1(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a

Endorsement No. 21: Exclusion: Access or Disclosure of Confidential Information

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

16. Supplementary Payments
The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section I, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section II, paragraph 8(e) for the conditions that apply.

17. Legal Action Against Us
"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

18. Changes
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section V, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

19. Separation of Insureds
"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section V, paragraph 11(a) for the conditions that apply.

See Section I, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Endorsement No. 21 (continued)

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request.

See Section IV, paragraph 5(g) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section IV, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section V, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period.

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section IV, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation,

Endorsement No. 22: Primary and Noncontributory: Other Insurance Condition

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

61. Premium Audit
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section III, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

62. Duty to Defend
Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. See Section II, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. See Section IV, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section I, paragraph 5(h) for the conditions that apply. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period.

Endorsement No. 22 (continued)

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section I, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. See Section II, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost.

73. Nonrenewal

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section II, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section II, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

74. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it

Endorsement No. 23: Exclusion: Total Pollution with Building Heating Equipment Exception

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

78. Transfer of Rights of Recovery

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section III, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

See Section V, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. See Section I, paragraph 11(a) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. See Section I, paragraph 2(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply.

79. Limits of Insurance Application

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. See Section II, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section IV, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Endorsement No. 23 (continued)

49. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. See Section II, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions.

50. Inspections and Surveys

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. See Section V, paragraph 7(b) for the conditions that apply.

Endorsement No. 24: Additional Insured: Owners, Lessees or Contractors, Completed Operatio

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

48. Legal Action Against Us
The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section V, paragraph 11(h) for the conditions that apply.

See Section III, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

49. Legal Action Against Us
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

50. Supplementary Payments
The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later made. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 1(c) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section I, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. See Section II, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the

Endorsement No. 24 (continued)

See Section II, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss.

See Section II, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

See Section V, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section IV, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply.

See Section IV, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must give written

Endorsement No. 25: Employee Benefits Liability Coverage

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. See Section V, paragraph 4(c) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 6(g) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection.

10. Policy Territory Definitions

The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section I, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. See Section III, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. See Section II, paragraph 9(f) for the conditions that apply.

See Section II, paragraph 7(a) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Endorsement No. 25 (continued)

44. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request.

45. Premium Audit
Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section I, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section II, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 2(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought.

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. See Section III, paragraph 12(b) for the

Endorsement No. 26: Exclusion: Unmanned Aircraft

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

55. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
See Section IV, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

56. Limits of Insurance Application
A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. See Section I, paragraph 8(h) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

57. Supplementary Payments
"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other

Endorsement No. 27: Amendment of Deductible

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part. The deductible shown in the Declarations is deleted and replaced with the following:
Amended Deductible: $7,500 per occurrence

68. Representations
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost.

69. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Endorsement No. 28: Contractual Liability Limitation

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought.

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change.

83. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
See Section V, paragraph 9(d) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions.

84. Other Insurance
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section I, paragraph 4(c) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost.

85. Supplementary Payments
Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. See Section II, paragraph 6(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

86. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as

Endorsement No. 28 (continued)

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

56. Premium Audit
Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance.

57. Examination of Your Books and Records
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date of the inspection. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. See Section I, paragraph 4(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section III, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply.

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought.

Endorsement No. 29: Blanket Additional Insured: Managers or Lessors of Premises

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. See Section II, paragraph 4(d) for the conditions that apply.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

75. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
See Section IV, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section III, paragraph 7(f) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

76. Knowledge of Occurrence
The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 12(d) for the conditions that apply.

77. Conformity with Statute
The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. Each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs

Endorsement No. 29 (continued)

71. Liberalization
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply.

72. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit
"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and a person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. See Section III, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply.

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section V, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section I, paragraph 8(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 11(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section I, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 7(c) for the conditions that apply.

73. Examination of Your Books and Records

Endorsement No. 30: Limited Coverage for Fungi or Bacteria

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request.

49. Bankruptcy

"Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. See Section II, paragraph 3(a) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss.

50. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. See Section II, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. See Section II, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply.

See Section II, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section I, paragraph 12(g) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change.

51. Limits of Insurance Application

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period.

52. Examination of Your Books and Records

The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added

Endorsement No. 30 (continued)

The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

35. Cancellation

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section V, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply.

36. Duty to Defend

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss.

37. Inspections and Surveys

"Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section V, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period.

See Section IV, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the named insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions.

38. Nonrenewal

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a

Endorsement No. 31: Additional Insured: Designated Person or Organization

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

2. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. See Section IV, paragraph 12(c) for the conditions that apply. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received whether or not a claim is later made. See Section V, paragraph 2(f) for the conditions that apply.

3. Bankruptcy

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. See Section II, paragraph 8(c) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made. See Section V, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Endorsement No. 31 (continued)

94. Knowledge of Occurrence

Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section II, paragraph 5(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section III, paragraph 7(c) for the conditions that apply.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date of the change. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date of the inspection. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date of the inspection.

The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

95. Separation of Insureds

A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than

Endorsement No. 32: Waiver of Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable.

63. Limits of Insurance Application

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the end of the policy period. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section III, paragraph 3(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have whether or not a claim is later made. See Section V, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply.

The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. See Section V, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

64. Premium Audit

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section I, paragraph 5(b) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

65. Medical Payments

Endorsement No. 32 (continued)

The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions.

"Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and a person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law.

30. Other Insurance
See Section II, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as soon as practicable.

The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request.

31. Medical Payments
The Carrier must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. The Producer of record shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request.

The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the first named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section II, paragraph 10(a) for the conditions that apply. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

32. Duty to Defend
Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the effective date

Endorsement No. 33: Exclusion: Designated Work

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

See Section III, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

See Section I, paragraph 6(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of discovery of the loss.

14. Representations
The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. The Carrier's authorized representative must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. See Section II, paragraph 1(e) for the conditions that apply.

15. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the insured's own cost.

16. Representations
The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. See Section III, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's

Endorsement No. 33 (continued)

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable.

"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

95. Other Insurance

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

See Section V, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request.

A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. See Section I, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

96. Transfer of Rights of Recovery

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable.

97. Legal Action Against Us

The Named Insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location

Endorsement No. 34: Notice of Cancellation to Designated Person or Organization

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request.

Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. See Section III, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the producer of record must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section I, paragraph 5(c) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

Endorsement No. 34 (continued)

75. Changes
The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim whether or not a claim is later made. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have before any suit is brought. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the Carrier's request. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

76. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date of the inspection.

See Section II, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. See Section II, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought.

77. Other Insurance
"Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the insured's own cost. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

78. Other Insurance
See Section III, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium for each location shown in the Schedule.

79. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage A
See Section II, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. See Section IV, paragraph 12(a) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section IV, paragraph 12(f) for the conditions that apply.

80. Policy Territory Definitions
Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. See Section II, paragraph 7(e) for the conditions that apply.

Endorsement No. 35: Amendment of Cancellation Provisions or Coverage Change

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and each insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable.

60. Supplementary Payments

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section V, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request.

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received for each location shown in the Schedule. Any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party within the period stated in the Conditions.

The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and any insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

61. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. See Section IV, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier.

Endorsement No. 35 (continued)

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the end of the policy period. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of discovery of the loss.

"Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the end of the policy period. The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. See Section IV, paragraph 11(f) for the conditions that apply. See Section IV, paragraph 2(e) for the conditions that apply.

Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as soon as practicable.

See Section I, paragraph 8(g) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

13. Liberalization

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the named insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance at the Carrier's request. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law.

A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and

Endorsement No. 36: Limitation of Coverage to Designated Premises or Project

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the Commercial General Liability Coverage Part.

The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and any insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the Carrier's request.

The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of discovery of the loss. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Any insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier's authorized representative must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. See Section IV, paragraph 10(b) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

See Section V, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim before any suit is brought. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date the claim is first made.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

56. Knowledge of Occurrence

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made.

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 001 8403 Wickersham Parkway, Akron, OH 44308 Class 58369 Area 14,010 sq ft
Loc 002 3037 Quillfeather Way, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 68715 Area 65,049 sq ft
Loc 003 8809 Pinecone Terrace, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 56341 Area 29,811 sq ft
Loc 004 7004 Marrow Creek Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 61451 Area 36,061 sq ft
Loc 005 1116 Marrow Creek Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 67104 Area 43,385 sq ft
Loc 006 5805 Granary Mill Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 68573 Area 16,668 sq ft
Loc 007 1485 Tamarack Row, Akron, OH 44308 Class 48509 Area 33,072 sq ft
Loc 008 3505 Fenwick Crossing, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 65047 Area 52,536 sq ft
Loc 009 4994 Tamarack Row, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 43612 Area 63,251 sq ft
Loc 010 4338 Dovetail Court, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 55840 Area 52,421 sq ft
Loc 011 2359 Marrow Creek Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 49795 Area 93,500 sq ft
Loc 012 6602 Fenwick Crossing, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 67111 Area 96,691 sq ft
Loc 013 8835 Pinecone Terrace, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 42542 Area 30,292 sq ft
Loc 014 7780 Lowell Foundry Street, Durham, NC 27701 Class 41340 Area 50,197 sq ft
Loc 015 4869 Wickersham Parkway, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 41455 Area 48,794 sq ft
Loc 016 4692 Quillfeather Way, Akron, OH 44308 Class 49141 Area 35,027 sq ft
Loc 017 4804 Dovetail Court, Erie, PA 16501 Class 55873 Area 88,789 sq ft
Loc 018 3921 Quillfeather Way, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 55828 Area 66,839 sq ft
Loc 019 2372 Cobbett Station Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 49763 Area 36,973 sq ft
Loc 020 3047 Pinecone Terrace, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 51406 Area 23,159 sq ft
Loc 021 8874 Fenwick Crossing, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 53810 Area 91,795 sq ft
Loc 022 7339 Cobbett Station Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 52150 Area 79,056 sq ft

Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

46. Bankruptcy

See Section IV, paragraph 8(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. Each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

See Section II, paragraph 10(f) for the conditions that apply. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 023 5149 Quillfeather Way, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 69340 Area 65,968 sq ft
Loc 024 8822 Cobbett Station Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 66619 Area 53,286 sq ft
Loc 025 7081 Alder Spur Lane, Akron, OH 44308 Class 40107 Area 62,050 sq ft
Loc 026 1869 Lowell Foundry Street, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 68155 Area 68,007 sq ft
Loc 027 7152 Sable Heron Drive, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 55534 Area 1,616 sq ft
Loc 028 2059 Pinecone Terrace, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 49717 Area 57,441 sq ft
Loc 029 1168 Marrow Creek Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 62491 Area 50,634 sq ft
Loc 030 5722 Granary Mill Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 41434 Area 84,308 sq ft
Loc 031 5202 Wickersham Parkway, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 44431 Area 70,643 sq ft
Loc 032 1605 Marrow Creek Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 60172 Area 47,934 sq ft
Loc 033 4936 Wickersham Parkway, Erie, PA 16501 Class 40225 Area 69,454 sq ft
Loc 034 6539 Sable Heron Drive, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 52102 Area 14,122 sq ft
Loc 035 2652 Sable Heron Drive, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 61136 Area 38,930 sq ft
Loc 036 6828 Wickersham Parkway, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 43683 Area 5,235 sq ft
Loc 037 5769 Lowell Foundry Street, Erie, PA 16501 Class 47758 Area 81,944 sq ft
Loc 038 9779 Lowell Foundry Street, Akron, OH 44308 Class 42613 Area 81,968 sq ft
Loc 039 6658 Marrow Creek Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 68733 Area 38,280 sq ft
Loc 040 7617 Pinecone Terrace, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 60491 Area 64,043 sq ft
Loc 041 9585 Sable Heron Drive, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 59836 Area 23,940 sq ft
Loc 042 2765 Cobbett Station Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 51559 Area 35,177 sq ft
Loc 043 2095 Alder Spur Lane, Durham, NC 27701 Class 69323 Area 15,626 sq ft
Loc 044 5021 Sable Heron Drive, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 55574 Area 97,372 sq ft

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

The Producer of record must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received at the insured's own cost. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

See Section V, paragraph 4(h) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the first

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 045 1602 Sable Heron Drive, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 67182 Area 91,879 sq ft
Loc 046 5934 Quillfeather Way, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 46296 Area 48,042 sq ft
Loc 047 5459 Tamarack Row, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 44849 Area 49,310 sq ft
Loc 048 4349 Wickersham Parkway, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 61897 Area 26,389 sq ft
Loc 049 942 Granary Mill Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 42530 Area 85,643 sq ft
Loc 050 8353 Quillfeather Way, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 40583 Area 63,269 sq ft
Loc 051 7820 Granary Mill Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 52751 Area 21,007 sq ft
Loc 052 6892 Cobbett Station Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 42985 Area 80,045 sq ft
Loc 053 7666 Granary Mill Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 43140 Area 48,402 sq ft
Loc 054 9579 Lowell Foundry Street, Durham, NC 27701 Class 50819 Area 13,517 sq ft
Loc 055 6750 Alder Spur Lane, Erie, PA 16501 Class 58755 Area 64,814 sq ft
Loc 056 4922 Lowell Foundry Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 47842 Area 29,205 sq ft
Loc 057 7558 Sable Heron Drive, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 63304 Area 81,565 sq ft
Loc 058 7876 Alder Spur Lane, Erie, PA 16501 Class 58266 Area 81,255 sq ft
Loc 059 7279 Fenwick Crossing, Durham, NC 27701 Class 69140 Area 16,392 sq ft
Loc 060 9579 Sable Heron Drive, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 52494 Area 18,424 sq ft
Loc 061 7210 Dovetail Court, Erie, PA 16501 Class 53845 Area 11,715 sq ft
Loc 062 3367 Cobbett Station Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 43873 Area 54,788 sq ft
Loc 063 2715 Pinecone Terrace, Erie, PA 16501 Class 52490 Area 72,716 sq ft
Loc 064 3831 Cobbett Station Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 53741 Area 12,394 sq ft
Loc 065 1595 Lowell Foundry Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 62133 Area 13,405 sq ft
Loc 066 2589 Sable Heron Drive, Erie, PA 16501 Class 45418 Area 25,135 sq ft

Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier.

The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss.

43. Nonrenewal

See Section V, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance.

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 067 6623 Granary Mill Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 54895 Area 30,549 sq ft
Loc 068 3549 Pinecone Terrace, Durham, NC 27701 Class 41551 Area 31,981 sq ft
Loc 069 5233 Cobbett Station Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 52784 Area 92,926 sq ft
Loc 070 1412 Quillfeather Way, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 59873 Area 21,787 sq ft
Loc 071 6119 Marrow Creek Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 64910 Area 83,462 sq ft
Loc 072 5115 Lowell Foundry Street, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 61949 Area 77,726 sq ft
Loc 073 8865 Cobbett Station Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 52059 Area 26,577 sq ft
Loc 074 9692 Tamarack Row, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 59837 Area 38,513 sq ft
Loc 075 756 Wickersham Parkway, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 40246 Area 68,251 sq ft
Loc 076 8994 Tamarack Row, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 56226 Area 15,676 sq ft
Loc 077 4035 Sable Heron Drive, Akron, OH 44308 Class 57956 Area 29,484 sq ft
Loc 078 6100 Alder Spur Lane, Akron, OH 44308 Class 40841 Area 90,769 sq ft
Loc 079 6940 Quillfeather Way, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 61249 Area 40,925 sq ft
Loc 080 289 Lowell Foundry Street, Erie, PA 16501 Class 60492 Area 25,610 sq ft
Loc 081 4415 Lowell Foundry Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 69427 Area 39,266 sq ft
Loc 082 9071 Marrow Creek Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 55916 Area 90,953 sq ft
Loc 083 9415 Quillfeather Way, Akron, OH 44308 Class 42787 Area 11,005 sq ft
Loc 084 1621 Lowell Foundry Street, Durham, NC 27701 Class 41718 Area 20,679 sq ft
Loc 085 6162 Pinecone Terrace, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 50445 Area 68,105 sq ft
Loc 086 3779 Fenwick Crossing, Durham, NC 27701 Class 67915 Area 96,435 sq ft
Loc 087 4375 Wickersham Parkway, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 65975 Area 20,831 sq ft
Loc 088 3432 Tamarack Row, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 62343 Area 93,938 sq ft

The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

The first Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. See Section III, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance, and the named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. See Section I, paragraph 2(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier.

See Section III, paragraph 8(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. See Section V, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. Any

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 089 7030 Pinecone Terrace, Durham, NC 27701 Class 69571 Area 79,110 sq ft
Loc 090 9238 Wickersham Parkway, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 69254 Area 89,019 sq ft
Loc 091 8731 Cobbett Station Road, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 63912 Area 63,299 sq ft
Loc 092 9552 Tamarack Row, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 49264 Area 72,302 sq ft
Loc 093 3035 Alder Spur Lane, Durham, NC 27701 Class 57785 Area 68,619 sq ft
Loc 094 9148 Fenwick Crossing, Erie, PA 16501 Class 66956 Area 81,942 sq ft
Loc 095 730 Pinecone Terrace, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 66725 Area 30,492 sq ft
Loc 096 2139 Sable Heron Drive, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 67524 Area 56,083 sq ft
Loc 097 3268 Wickersham Parkway, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 40002 Area 78,018 sq ft
Loc 098 6637 Granary Mill Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 52652 Area 9,196 sq ft
Loc 099 306 Sable Heron Drive, Erie, PA 16501 Class 64352 Area 40,583 sq ft
Loc 100 5776 Alder Spur Lane, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 43352 Area 75,978 sq ft
Loc 101 1968 Wickersham Parkway, Durham, NC 27701 Class 41917 Area 57,780 sq ft
Loc 102 6112 Quillfeather Way, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 54208 Area 29,861 sq ft
Loc 103 7271 Tamarack Row, Durham, NC 27701 Class 42990 Area 39,635 sq ft
Loc 104 5194 Cobbett Station Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 64741 Area 72,790 sq ft
Loc 105 4496 Tamarack Row, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 41661 Area 64,678 sq ft
Loc 106 9463 Marrow Creek Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 40746 Area 84,658 sq ft
Loc 107 6337 Tamarack Row, Durham, NC 27701 Class 56034 Area 24,797 sq ft
Loc 108 4282 Lowell Foundry Street, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 44894 Area 64,071 sq ft
Loc 109 2014 Cobbett Station Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 46678 Area 8,426 sq ft
Loc 110 3362 Dovetail Court, Akron, OH 44308 Class 67246 Area 61,449 sq ft

Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought.

The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 3(a) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. The first Named Insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium as a condition of this insurance.

See Section IV, paragraph 7(d) for the conditions that apply. Any insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 111 5456 Granary Mill Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 56455 Area 94,983 sq ft
Loc 112 7498 Dovetail Court, Durham, NC 27701 Class 48860 Area 77,688 sq ft
Loc 113 3666 Cobbett Station Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 69484 Area 23,879 sq ft
Loc 114 2802 Tamarack Row, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 50458 Area 21,310 sq ft
Loc 115 7656 Wickersham Parkway, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 54724 Area 7,004 sq ft
Loc 116 9023 Dovetail Court, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 59119 Area 40,566 sq ft
Loc 117 6135 Tamarack Row, Akron, OH 44308 Class 57770 Area 54,819 sq ft
Loc 118 3553 Tamarack Row, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 64428 Area 34,278 sq ft
Loc 119 4436 Tamarack Row, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 54293 Area 51,182 sq ft
Loc 120 8465 Wickersham Parkway, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 53808 Area 64,880 sq ft
Loc 121 2023 Wickersham Parkway, Erie, PA 16501 Class 63267 Area 34,388 sq ft
Loc 122 5648 Lowell Foundry Street, Akron, OH 44308 Class 51005 Area 17,965 sq ft
Loc 123 9791 Wickersham Parkway, Akron, OH 44308 Class 66012 Area 32,747 sq ft
Loc 124 3890 Marrow Creek Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 44565 Area 81,237 sq ft
Loc 125 2152 Tamarack Row, Akron, OH 44308 Class 53235 Area 86,957 sq ft
Loc 126 5011 Fenwick Crossing, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 67104 Area 90,613 sq ft
Loc 127 45 Alder Spur Lane, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 56834 Area 77,835 sq ft
Loc 128 9578 Wickersham Parkway, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 67883 Area 45,521 sq ft
Loc 129 1910 Wickersham Parkway, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 50362 Area 4,056 sq ft
Loc 130 9070 Lowell Foundry Street, Erie, PA 16501 Class 53530 Area 2,995 sq ft
Loc 131 5982 Pinecone Terrace, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 61630 Area 21,509 sq ft
Loc 132 925 Tamarack Row, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 66572 Area 23,089 sq ft

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the effective date of the change. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. A person or organization seeking coverage shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

See Section IV, paragraph 10(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. See Section I, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply.

96. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud
The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations for each location shown in the Schedule. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of written request by the Carrier.

97. Inspections and Surveys
Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. See Section V, paragraph 3(e) for the conditions that apply. Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium whether or not a claim is later

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 133 2192 Cobbett Station Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 61000 Area 93,114 sq ft
Loc 134 6649 Dovetail Court, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 51473 Area 8,199 sq ft
Loc 135 3508 Tamarack Row, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 51687 Area 33,886 sq ft
Loc 136 4441 Wickersham Parkway, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 66509 Area 67,810 sq ft
Loc 137 459 Lowell Foundry Street, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 63148 Area 62,836 sq ft
Loc 138 8990 Pinecone Terrace, Akron, OH 44308 Class 44593 Area 11,555 sq ft
Loc 139 1913 Lowell Foundry Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 62866 Area 72,664 sq ft
Loc 140 6082 Tamarack Row, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 42857 Area 23,349 sq ft
Loc 141 3654 Tamarack Row, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 55316 Area 61,373 sq ft
Loc 142 9253 Dovetail Court, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 42771 Area 84,833 sq ft
Loc 143 759 Sable Heron Drive, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 42191 Area 5,522 sq ft
Loc 144 5864 Fenwick Crossing, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 59468 Area 67,250 sq ft
Loc 145 86 Pinecone Terrace, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 58554 Area 83,205 sq ft
Loc 146 1302 Pinecone Terrace, Erie, PA 16501 Class 51465 Area 20,714 sq ft
Loc 147 8377 Tamarack Row, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 66821 Area 77,328 sq ft
Loc 148 4003 Lowell Foundry Street, Durham, NC 27701 Class 54552 Area 9,531 sq ft
Loc 149 7052 Alder Spur Lane, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 53438 Area 11,418 sq ft
Loc 150 2331 Alder Spur Lane, Durham, NC 27701 Class 57393 Area 89,415 sq ft
Loc 151 999 Sable Heron Drive, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 58876 Area 15,889 sq ft
Loc 152 1329 Lowell Foundry Street, Durham, NC 27701 Class 50392 Area 65,197 sq ft
Loc 153 8759 Fenwick Crossing, Akron, OH 44308 Class 53482 Area 24,098 sq ft
Loc 154 7588 Tamarack Row, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 68283 Area 52,626 sq ft

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the insured's own cost. See Section III, paragraph 6(c) for the conditions that apply.

79. Limits of Insurance Application

See Section I, paragraph 10(e) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. See Section III, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Producer of record may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section III, paragraph 3(b) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. This provision does not apply to the

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 155 1988 Pinecone Terrace, Erie, PA 16501 Class 66358 Area 4,312 sq ft
Loc 156 7472 Alder Spur Lane, Akron, OH 44308 Class 43618 Area 5,621 sq ft
Loc 157 3133 Lowell Foundry Street, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 64174 Area 2,738 sq ft
Loc 158 6001 Fenwick Crossing, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 42458 Area 64,380 sq ft
Loc 159 8017 Granary Mill Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 47365 Area 18,876 sq ft
Loc 160 5338 Pinecone Terrace, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 44484 Area 33,415 sq ft
Loc 161 792 Fenwick Crossing, Akron, OH 44308 Class 52773 Area 91,508 sq ft
Loc 162 8168 Fenwick Crossing, Erie, PA 16501 Class 51196 Area 68,896 sq ft
Loc 163 7227 Fenwick Crossing, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 67939 Area 46,598 sq ft
Loc 164 5137 Quillfeather Way, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 59392 Area 59,600 sq ft
Loc 165 1197 Quillfeather Way, Akron, OH 44308 Class 64621 Area 21,067 sq ft
Loc 166 9440 Dovetail Court, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 67602 Area 20,283 sq ft
Loc 167 3919 Dovetail Court, Erie, PA 16501 Class 66483 Area 86,616 sq ft
Loc 168 4193 Granary Mill Road, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 63612 Area 97,385 sq ft
Loc 169 6023 Cobbett Station Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 62712 Area 76,467 sq ft
Loc 170 1428 Marrow Creek Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 52668 Area 58,264 sq ft
Loc 171 4110 Pinecone Terrace, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 58858 Area 2,776 sq ft
Loc 172 6821 Sable Heron Drive, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 46062 Area 69,832 sq ft
Loc 173 2894 Dovetail Court, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 42873 Area 58,427 sq ft
Loc 174 1164 Wickersham Parkway, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 50688 Area 35,048 sq ft
Loc 175 1082 Granary Mill Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 47428 Area 30,785 sq ft
Loc 176 4348 Wickersham Parkway, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 41890 Area 81,935 sq ft

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as a condition of this insurance.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and any insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

97. Bankruptcy

Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party as soon as practicable. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws.

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 177 3569 Granary Mill Road, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 43711 Area 47,218 sq ft
Loc 178 5260 Lowell Foundry Street, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 48029 Area 10,601 sq ft
Loc 179 9232 Wickersham Parkway, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 51782 Area 4,213 sq ft
Loc 180 6354 Lowell Foundry Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 59202 Area 91,631 sq ft
Loc 181 6273 Alder Spur Lane, Erie, PA 16501 Class 54399 Area 12,661 sq ft
Loc 182 1104 Dovetail Court, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 65226 Area 38,125 sq ft
Loc 183 8649 Granary Mill Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 61490 Area 28,163 sq ft
Loc 184 7066 Dovetail Court, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 64682 Area 88,847 sq ft
Loc 185 1617 Tamarack Row, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 48143 Area 77,430 sq ft
Loc 186 4930 Fenwick Crossing, Erie, PA 16501 Class 62375 Area 53,263 sq ft
Loc 187 51 Marrow Creek Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 41431 Area 8,988 sq ft
Loc 188 1891 Pinecone Terrace, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 47879 Area 33,228 sq ft
Loc 189 5088 Fenwick Crossing, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 48234 Area 60,877 sq ft
Loc 190 5119 Fenwick Crossing, Akron, OH 44308 Class 54081 Area 66,560 sq ft
Loc 191 962 Pinecone Terrace, Durham, NC 27701 Class 64167 Area 54,230 sq ft
Loc 192 4962 Cobbett Station Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 45206 Area 9,139 sq ft
Loc 193 2315 Sable Heron Drive, Erie, PA 16501 Class 60420 Area 60,543 sq ft
Loc 194 622 Fenwick Crossing, Akron, OH 44308 Class 45335 Area 90,982 sq ft
Loc 195 6907 Cobbett Station Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 48061 Area 55,409 sq ft
Loc 196 4347 Fenwick Crossing, Akron, OH 44308 Class 63417 Area 55,249 sq ft
Loc 197 4322 Marrow Creek Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 62555 Area 63,555 sq ft
Loc 198 737 Quillfeather Way, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 61202 Area 29,233 sq ft

The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. See Section III, paragraph 9(a) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as a condition of this insurance.

The Producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times as soon as practicable. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element.

48. Knowledge of Occurrence
Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense to the extent permitted by applicable law.

49. Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Organizations
See Section V, paragraph 8(a) for the conditions that apply. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 199 9126 Pinecone Terrace, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 68867 Area 8,950 sq ft
Loc 200 6866 Dovetail Court, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 45937 Area 13,980 sq ft
Loc 201 1353 Cobbett Station Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 62544 Area 50,170 sq ft
Loc 202 2566 Alder Spur Lane, Durham, NC 27701 Class 64966 Area 83,624 sq ft
Loc 203 512 Fenwick Crossing, Durham, NC 27701 Class 64019 Area 58,393 sq ft
Loc 204 3629 Dovetail Court, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 44285 Area 11,999 sq ft
Loc 205 9363 Sable Heron Drive, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 69574 Area 45,275 sq ft
Loc 206 5913 Wickersham Parkway, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 54047 Area 85,667 sq ft
Loc 207 7969 Quillfeather Way, Akron, OH 44308 Class 55606 Area 68,035 sq ft
Loc 208 968 Sable Heron Drive, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 55622 Area 74,075 sq ft
Loc 209 5741 Granary Mill Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 61706 Area 15,905 sq ft
Loc 210 4655 Fenwick Crossing, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 53135 Area 50,281 sq ft
Loc 211 1392 Dovetail Court, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 42042 Area 93,929 sq ft
Loc 212 4910 Dovetail Court, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 60169 Area 47,508 sq ft
Loc 213 2633 Dovetail Court, Erie, PA 16501 Class 56425 Area 16,967 sq ft
Loc 214 2639 Dovetail Court, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 68665 Area 95,069 sq ft
Loc 215 1129 Wickersham Parkway, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 49905 Area 23,868 sq ft
Loc 216 5958 Lowell Foundry Street, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 44059 Area 88,729 sq ft
Loc 217 8513 Granary Mill Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 59098 Area 91,556 sq ft
Loc 218 6041 Quillfeather Way, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 60380 Area 83,314 sq ft
Loc 219 6436 Cobbett Station Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 44107 Area 86,218 sq ft
Loc 220 9670 Marrow Creek Road, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 55082 Area 46,159 sq ft

The Producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and a person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section II, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 9(d) for the conditions that apply. The first Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. See Section I, paragraph 12(b) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

26. Knowledge of Occurrence
The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. A person or organization seeking coverage must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim at the Carrier's request. See Section IV, paragraph 1(d) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 221 3628 Marrow Creek Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 63740 Area 15,005 sq ft
Loc 222 3336 Granary Mill Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 60504 Area 20,880 sq ft
Loc 223 2329 Fenwick Crossing, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 48240 Area 10,111 sq ft
Loc 224 6355 Fenwick Crossing, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 54949 Area 35,961 sq ft
Loc 225 7941 Sable Heron Drive, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 56550 Area 78,037 sq ft
Loc 226 4937 Marrow Creek Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 45339 Area 61,339 sq ft
Loc 227 2113 Fenwick Crossing, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 63947 Area 4,479 sq ft
Loc 228 1395 Marrow Creek Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 52552 Area 10,102 sq ft
Loc 229 3894 Pinecone Terrace, Akron, OH 44308 Class 61661 Area 95,651 sq ft
Loc 230 7485 Alder Spur Lane, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 45156 Area 66,833 sq ft
Loc 231 5647 Dovetail Court, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 56950 Area 17,897 sq ft
Loc 232 296 Fenwick Crossing, Akron, OH 44308 Class 60965 Area 83,060 sq ft
Loc 233 358 Alder Spur Lane, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 51009 Area 12,272 sq ft
Loc 234 4914 Granary Mill Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 67532 Area 64,762 sq ft
Loc 235 4588 Marrow Creek Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 44990 Area 7,487 sq ft
Loc 236 7876 Marrow Creek Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 44676 Area 56,018 sq ft
Loc 237 6888 Sable Heron Drive, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 53375 Area 31,250 sq ft
Loc 238 2150 Fenwick Crossing, Akron, OH 44308 Class 60822 Area 38,933 sq ft
Loc 239 3141 Lowell Foundry Street, Erie, PA 16501 Class 69045 Area 90,900 sq ft
Loc 240 6506 Sable Heron Drive, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 62488 Area 43,480 sq ft
Loc 241 2230 Granary Mill Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 66984 Area 55,608 sq ft
Loc 242 1003 Tamarack Row, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 40814 Area 84,536 sq ft

Each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions. The first Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim whether or not a claim is later made.

26. Examination of Your Books and Records

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. Each insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made.

27. Representations

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have to the extent permitted by applicable law. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed. The Producer of record will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. This

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 243 497 Marrow Creek Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 42486 Area 91,592 sq ft
Loc 244 9079 Alder Spur Lane, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 55977 Area 85,581 sq ft
Loc 245 1990 Dovetail Court, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 67681 Area 6,687 sq ft
Loc 246 1168 Cobbett Station Road, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 46863 Area 38,965 sq ft
Loc 247 9420 Quillfeather Way, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 59135 Area 97,975 sq ft
Loc 248 9021 Granary Mill Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 59975 Area 33,184 sq ft
Loc 249 7985 Granary Mill Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 61779 Area 41,374 sq ft
Loc 250 7271 Wickersham Parkway, Akron, OH 44308 Class 60866 Area 87,522 sq ft
Loc 251 1951 Dovetail Court, Erie, PA 16501 Class 42974 Area 23,048 sq ft
Loc 252 3214 Quillfeather Way, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 64702 Area 31,385 sq ft
Loc 253 5878 Dovetail Court, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 41307 Area 86,135 sq ft
Loc 254 9564 Lowell Foundry Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 45067 Area 49,586 sq ft
Loc 255 6438 Granary Mill Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 49031 Area 36,456 sq ft
Loc 256 8953 Quillfeather Way, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 47345 Area 91,465 sq ft
Loc 257 7003 Dovetail Court, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 69385 Area 43,234 sq ft
Loc 258 3810 Cobbett Station Road, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 50761 Area 62,726 sq ft
Loc 259 6578 Dovetail Court, Durham, NC 27701 Class 67674 Area 74,061 sq ft
Loc 260 9639 Dovetail Court, Akron, OH 44308 Class 63140 Area 14,349 sq ft
Loc 261 1786 Alder Spur Lane, Akron, OH 44308 Class 68441 Area 66,672 sq ft
Loc 262 6947 Pinecone Terrace, Erie, PA 16501 Class 48784 Area 55,231 sq ft
Loc 263 104 Sable Heron Drive, Akron, OH 44308 Class 51821 Area 38,652 sq ft
Loc 264 6541 Cobbett Station Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 60898 Area 30,826 sq ft

75. Knowledge of Occurrence

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of discovery of the loss. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section I, paragraph 12(e) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the carrier must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as a condition of this insurance. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

The Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

See Section II, paragraph 4(f) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the Carrier's request. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party at the insured's own cost. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage is required

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 265 2045 Tamarack Row, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 53675 Area 95,045 sq ft
Loc 266 6302 Granary Mill Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 60764 Area 32,383 sq ft
Loc 267 4676 Marrow Creek Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 60023 Area 34,114 sq ft
Loc 268 2658 Granary Mill Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 60703 Area 62,649 sq ft
Loc 269 5867 Fenwick Crossing, Akron, OH 44308 Class 50845 Area 35,486 sq ft
Loc 270 8596 Lowell Foundry Street, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 58180 Area 12,213 sq ft
Loc 271 5389 Granary Mill Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 64968 Area 96,866 sq ft
Loc 272 6997 Dovetail Court, Erie, PA 16501 Class 53956 Area 97,696 sq ft
Loc 273 4343 Dovetail Court, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 40003 Area 34,281 sq ft
Loc 274 9377 Marrow Creek Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 42988 Area 17,642 sq ft
Loc 275 5171 Cobbett Station Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 64386 Area 26,272 sq ft
Loc 276 365 Quillfeather Way, Erie, PA 16501 Class 59976 Area 33,125 sq ft
Loc 277 4643 Cobbett Station Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 65699 Area 84,824 sq ft
Loc 278 6196 Tamarack Row, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 48518 Area 40,187 sq ft
Loc 279 155 Tamarack Row, Erie, PA 16501 Class 47970 Area 1,983 sq ft
Loc 280 4044 Tamarack Row, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 54988 Area 7,559 sq ft
Loc 281 9527 Fenwick Crossing, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 45406 Area 15,562 sq ft
Loc 282 7190 Fenwick Crossing, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 63178 Area 60,884 sq ft
Loc 283 4455 Sable Heron Drive, Durham, NC 27701 Class 68430 Area 1,615 sq ft
Loc 284 6244 Pinecone Terrace, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 56325 Area 97,877 sq ft
Loc 285 7520 Dovetail Court, Erie, PA 16501 Class 41827 Area 64,252 sq ft
Loc 286 2010 Dovetail Court, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 41263 Area 43,497 sq ft

The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the insured's own cost. See Section II, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. Each insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have, and each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier's authorized representative is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times before any suit is brought. See Section III, paragraph 3(h) for the conditions that apply.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of the date the claim is first made. The Carrier will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received before any suit is brought. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the producer of record will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 287 6161 Tamarack Row, Durham, NC 27701 Class 44410 Area 46,352 sq ft
Loc 288 4806 Granary Mill Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 44089 Area 25,426 sq ft
Loc 289 5585 Cobbett Station Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 47855 Area 6,066 sq ft
Loc 290 899 Marrow Creek Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 54353 Area 48,683 sq ft
Loc 291 2883 Quillfeather Way, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 41315 Area 20,983 sq ft
Loc 292 4807 Quillfeather Way, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 69678 Area 27,884 sq ft
Loc 293 6137 Pinecone Terrace, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 68838 Area 17,042 sq ft
Loc 294 1428 Wickersham Parkway, Durham, NC 27701 Class 54634 Area 35,670 sq ft
Loc 295 1788 Quillfeather Way, Erie, PA 16501 Class 54695 Area 74,930 sq ft
Loc 296 4463 Marrow Creek Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 48555 Area 54,786 sq ft
Loc 297 2702 Cobbett Station Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 47458 Area 42,853 sq ft
Loc 298 6835 Lowell Foundry Street, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 45255 Area 82,595 sq ft
Loc 299 588 Cobbett Station Road, Erie, PA 16501 Class 57686 Area 3,595 sq ft
Loc 300 8137 Granary Mill Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 59735 Area 80,837 sq ft
Loc 301 6148 Fenwick Crossing, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 61274 Area 42,399 sq ft
Loc 302 7479 Granary Mill Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 40637 Area 56,712 sq ft
Loc 303 4381 Sable Heron Drive, Durham, NC 27701 Class 41689 Area 27,072 sq ft
Loc 304 103 Dovetail Court, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 40194 Area 66,121 sq ft
Loc 305 8949 Pinecone Terrace, Erie, PA 16501 Class 44591 Area 67,055 sq ft
Loc 306 4470 Granary Mill Road, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 41033 Area 50,635 sq ft
Loc 307 3442 Wickersham Parkway, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 47812 Area 81,284 sq ft
Loc 308 3251 Fenwick Crossing, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 52014 Area 61,904 sq ft

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. The first Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim as soon as practicable. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period.

Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought.

57. Cancellation

The Carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and the producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. A person or organization seeking coverage must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section IV, paragraph 10(h) for the conditions that apply.

58. Limits of Insurance Application

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 309 8747 Quillfeather Way, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 41808 Area 4,364 sq ft
Loc 310 5690 Pinecone Terrace, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 45607 Area 57,487 sq ft
Loc 311 154 Dovetail Court, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 68563 Area 9,216 sq ft
Loc 312 492 Lowell Foundry Street, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 46632 Area 46,469 sq ft
Loc 313 3804 Tamarack Row, Durham, NC 27701 Class 44468 Area 77,852 sq ft
Loc 314 4584 Alder Spur Lane, Durham, NC 27701 Class 44639 Area 66,094 sq ft
Loc 315 1428 Pinecone Terrace, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 63308 Area 79,210 sq ft
Loc 316 1173 Fenwick Crossing, Akron, OH 44308 Class 44415 Area 76,708 sq ft
Loc 317 5604 Tamarack Row, Erie, PA 16501 Class 51579 Area 32,134 sq ft
Loc 318 872 Granary Mill Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 58297 Area 80,718 sq ft
Loc 319 6473 Granary Mill Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 68993 Area 57,912 sq ft
Loc 320 7960 Sable Heron Drive, Durham, NC 27701 Class 64240 Area 55,746 sq ft
Loc 321 9314 Pinecone Terrace, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 68531 Area 93,600 sq ft
Loc 322 4599 Sable Heron Drive, Akron, OH 44308 Class 65237 Area 7,651 sq ft
Loc 323 5754 Wickersham Parkway, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 68436 Area 16,619 sq ft
Loc 324 8357 Alder Spur Lane, Erie, PA 16501 Class 47390 Area 12,214 sq ft
Loc 325 5572 Wickersham Parkway, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 43236 Area 73,596 sq ft
Loc 326 4372 Dovetail Court, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 56958 Area 56,634 sq ft
Loc 327 6450 Wickersham Parkway, Erie, PA 16501 Class 40401 Area 75,571 sq ft
Loc 328 5484 Fenwick Crossing, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 54999 Area 91,245 sq ft
Loc 329 1781 Lowell Foundry Street, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 57182 Area 91,896 sq ft
Loc 330 4142 Granary Mill Road, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 66045 Area 15,314 sq ft

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of written request by the Carrier. "Impaired property" means tangible property, other than your product or your work, that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates a defective or inadequate element. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Named Insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times whether or not a claim is later made. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection.

"Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the effective date of the change. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of written request by the Carrier.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. A person or organization seeking coverage is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. The Carrier's authorized representative agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and a person or

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 331 7819 Marrow Creek Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 48476 Area 82,818 sq ft
Loc 332 7911 Wickersham Parkway, Durham, NC 27701 Class 49732 Area 91,428 sq ft
Loc 333 4898 Dovetail Court, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 69114 Area 4,581 sq ft
Loc 334 5826 Wickersham Parkway, Durham, NC 27701 Class 66497 Area 79,242 sq ft
Loc 335 6566 Quillfeather Way, Durham, NC 27701 Class 65924 Area 31,236 sq ft
Loc 336 4397 Lowell Foundry Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 43845 Area 46,107 sq ft
Loc 337 6829 Fenwick Crossing, Durham, NC 27701 Class 69634 Area 9,566 sq ft
Loc 338 6183 Quillfeather Way, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 40067 Area 46,551 sq ft
Loc 339 6151 Pinecone Terrace, Akron, OH 44308 Class 42921 Area 40,446 sq ft
Loc 340 428 Quillfeather Way, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 47407 Area 59,677 sq ft
Loc 341 5549 Cobbett Station Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 68209 Area 57,748 sq ft
Loc 342 402 Wickersham Parkway, Erie, PA 16501 Class 46942 Area 95,127 sq ft
Loc 343 5265 Marrow Creek Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 61298 Area 88,555 sq ft
Loc 344 3494 Fenwick Crossing, Erie, PA 16501 Class 56992 Area 16,651 sq ft
Loc 345 246 Lowell Foundry Street, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 53377 Area 19,022 sq ft
Loc 346 2560 Dovetail Court, Erie, PA 16501 Class 56123 Area 62,314 sq ft
Loc 347 3320 Granary Mill Road, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 52991 Area 64,651 sq ft
Loc 348 8619 Granary Mill Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 68580 Area 78,755 sq ft
Loc 349 5817 Granary Mill Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 66166 Area 10,830 sq ft
Loc 350 6210 Alder Spur Lane, Erie, PA 16501 Class 69112 Area 20,737 sq ft
Loc 351 3359 Tamarack Row, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 47666 Area 69,707 sq ft
Loc 352 5341 Tamarack Row, Erie, PA 16501 Class 67689 Area 93,501 sq ft

The first Named Insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have as soon as practicable. The Named Insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of discovery of the loss.

The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as soon as practicable. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

See Section IV, paragraph 9(c) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and the first named insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance.

Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand,

Schedule of Locations and Classifications

Loc 353 7755 Fenwick Crossing, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 55146 Area 50,590 sq ft
Loc 354 1912 Sable Heron Drive, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 69744 Area 4,899 sq ft
Loc 355 2548 Dovetail Court, Erie, PA 16501 Class 60604 Area 37,312 sq ft
Loc 356 8161 Pinecone Terrace, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 53192 Area 26,328 sq ft
Loc 357 3601 Lowell Foundry Street, Erie, PA 16501 Class 62343 Area 22,782 sq ft
Loc 358 4243 Sable Heron Drive, Durham, NC 27701 Class 57819 Area 12,560 sq ft
Loc 359 9796 Tamarack Row, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 57678 Area 8,592 sq ft
Loc 360 2636 Granary Mill Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 40462 Area 34,535 sq ft
Loc 361 8702 Lowell Foundry Street, Erie, PA 16501 Class 61914 Area 68,755 sq ft
Loc 362 6575 Marrow Creek Road, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 56281 Area 16,166 sq ft
Loc 363 1856 Marrow Creek Road, Akron, OH 44308 Class 46508 Area 55,119 sq ft
Loc 364 5904 Cobbett Station Road, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 53898 Area 11,824 sq ft
Loc 365 8228 Tamarack Row, Raleigh, NC 27601 Class 68264 Area 69,145 sq ft
Loc 366 3874 Granary Mill Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 55874 Area 1,516 sq ft
Loc 367 4583 Sable Heron Drive, Erie, PA 16501 Class 65755 Area 80,335 sq ft
Loc 368 36 Dovetail Court, Akron, OH 44308 Class 69883 Area 40,531 sq ft
Loc 369 224 Marrow Creek Road, Toledo, OH 43604 Class 64819 Area 29,143 sq ft
Loc 370 7732 Sable Heron Drive, Harrisburg, PA 17101 Class 64904 Area 84,059 sq ft
Loc 371 8031 Fenwick Crossing, Scranton, PA 18503 Class 43936 Area 38,411 sq ft
Loc 372 1849 Sable Heron Drive, Dayton, OH 45402 Class 49406 Area 67,439 sq ft
Loc 373 7813 Pinecone Terrace, Erie, PA 16501 Class 55101 Area 63,717 sq ft
Loc 374 8278 Granary Mill Road, Durham, NC 27701 Class 55170 Area 61,266 sq ft

21. Other Insurance

The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the first named insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. The Carrier may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense within the period stated in the Conditions. Any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as a condition of this insurance.

"Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier. The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and the carrier must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier's authorized representative may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request.

Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to the insured to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

"Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to

Schedule of Insurance Summary

Schedule of Limits: General Aggregate Limit $4,000,000 applies, as amended by the endorsements attached.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The Named Insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim, and each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

Any insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim as soon as practicable. The Producer of record is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim as a condition of this insurance. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. See Section III, paragraph 2(d) for the conditions that apply.

See Section I, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply. A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section IV, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of discovery of the loss.

"Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. "Policy period" means the period of time stated in the Declarations unless it is ended earlier by cancellation. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date of the inspection. The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and the carrier will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought.

The Producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the producer of record shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the Carrier's request. The Carrier's authorized representative must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times to the extent permitted by applicable law.

24. Conformity with Statute

Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the date the claim is first made. A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the Carrier's request. Any insured must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier

Subjectivities

1. Signed and dated application
2. Currently valued loss runs for the prior five years
3. Completed kitchen fire suppression inspection report
4. Signed terrorism coverage disclosure

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. The Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium to the extent permitted by applicable law.

A person or organization seeking coverage agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule. See Section III, paragraph 1(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made. See Section I, paragraph 12(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made.

98. Duty to Defend
The Carrier's authorized representative will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations whether or not a claim is later made. See Section IV, paragraph 6(g) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the audit worksheet is mailed.

See Section III, paragraph 6(h) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the date the claim is first made.

The Named Insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance whether or not a claim is later made. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the insured's own cost. See Section II, paragraph 5(f) for the conditions that apply. Notice under this provision must be given within 90 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. Each insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

99. Exclusions Applicable to Coverage B
The first Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. See Section III, paragraph 2(g) for the conditions that apply. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of bodily injury or property damage are alleged.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. "Mobile equipment" means any land vehicle, including attached machinery or apparatus, that is not subject to compulsory or financial responsibility laws. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. The Carrier agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of the date the claim is first made.

Binding Terms

Quote Valid Until: December 15, 2026

Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and a person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. See Section I, paragraph 6(f) for the conditions that apply. Each insured must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and a person or organization seeking coverage may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim at the Carrier's request. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change.

The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period at the insured's own cost. "Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. The first Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense at the Carrier's request. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. The Named Insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law.

53. Examination of Your Books and Records
The Carrier's authorized representative may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim within the period stated in the Conditions. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations as soon as practicable. The Carrier's authorized representative will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium within the period stated in the Conditions. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of the date the audit worksheet is mailed. Each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance within the period stated in the Conditions.

"Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work.

Notice under this provision must be given within 10 days of written request by the Carrier. The Carrier shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Carrier shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation,

Notices

71. Policy Territory Definitions

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the end of the policy period. The first Named Insured will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium at the insured's own cost. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of the end of the policy period. The Carrier's authorized representative must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and the first named insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times within the period stated in the Conditions. The Carrier may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and any insured shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim for each location shown in the Schedule.

A person or organization seeking coverage will keep records of the information needed to compute the premium before any suit is brought. Each insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations at the Carrier's request. See Section V, paragraph 6(d) for the conditions that apply.

A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received to the extent permitted by applicable law. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions. See Section II, paragraph 4(a) for the conditions that apply.

The Carrier's authorized representative shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance as soon as practicable. "Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs discovery of the loss. A person or organization seeking coverage must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense before any suit is brought.

The Named Insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the carrier's authorized representative shall cooperate with the Carrier in the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim at the insured's own cost. See Section IV, paragraph 4(e) for the conditions that apply. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the effective date of the change. The Producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period for each location shown in the Schedule.

This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date the claim is first made. Any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. Notice under this provision must be given within 45 days of the effective date of the change. The Producer of record must give written notice of an occurrence that may result in a claim, and the producer of record may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made.

"Volunteer worker" means a person who donates his or her work, acts at the direction of the insured and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation. Any insured will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and each insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense for each location shown in the Schedule. The Carrier

Authorized Representative

A person or organization seeking coverage must preserve the rights of recovery against any other party, and any insured is required to permit inspection of premises and operations at reasonable times for each location shown in the Schedule. "Property damage" means physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use, or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. See Section II, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time. A person or organization seeking coverage shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance before any suit is brought.

The Named Insured agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period, and any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim before any suit is brought. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs the date of the inspection. Notice under this provision must be given within 30 days of written request by the Carrier.

Each insured must send the Carrier copies of any demand, notice, summons or legal paper received, and each insured shall provide access to books and records that relate to this insurance to the extent permitted by applicable law. See Section III, paragraph 1(g) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 6(a) for the conditions that apply. The Carrier must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have within the period stated in the Conditions.

"Products-completed operations hazard" includes all bodily injury and property damage occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of your product or your work. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of written request by the Carrier. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs receipt of the demand or suit papers.

43. Inspections and Surveys
A person or organization seeking coverage will notify the Carrier of any change in ownership or operations, and a person or organization seeking coverage may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense as a condition of this insurance. Notice under this provision must be given within 15 days of receipt of the demand or suit papers. This provision does not apply to the extent it conflicts with a statute or regulation that governs written request by the Carrier.

Notice under this provision must be given within 60 days of the date of the inspection. Any insured may be asked to submit to examination under oath about the claim, and the first named insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense whether or not a claim is later made. See Section I, paragraph 3(c) for the conditions that apply. "Insured contract" means a contract for a lease of premises, a sidetrack agreement or an easement, excluding any easement for work within fifty feet of a railroad. The Producer of record must not impair any right of recovery the Carrier may have unless the Carrier agrees otherwise in writing.

See Section III, paragraph 1(h) for the conditions that apply. The Named Insured may not voluntarily make a payment, assume an obligation or incur an expense, and the producer of record agrees to report each premises and each operation that is added during the policy period within the period stated in the Conditions. See Section IV, paragraph 5(e) for the conditions that apply. See Section III, paragraph 8(d) for the conditions that apply. See Section V, paragraph 11(b) for the conditions that apply.